

THIS WAS THE PICTURE at The Sun and 12 other newspapers during the first newspaper strike in the history of Contra Costa County. Why the two pickets with two different signs? Well, the picket on the right is picketing for the Martinez Typographical Union 597 and the other is picketing the type union for the Contra Costa Printing Pressmen and Assistants Union Local 432, AFL-CIO.

Improvers Ask Completion of Diablo Freeway

Early completion of the Diablo Freeway was urged Wednesday night by the Board of Directors of the Lafayette Improvement Association.

In a unanimously adopted resolution, the board meeting at Lafayette Town Hall, urged "completion of construction of the Diablo Freeway between Upper Happy Valley Road in Lafayette and the Orinda Interchange, and from the Orinda Interchange to the Broadway Tunnel."

The meeting was the board's first one of the 1957-58 year.

The directors asked that "first priority be given to the section between Upper Happy Valley Road and the Orinda Interchange."

They asked that funds be allocated for the work in the 1958-59 fiscal year. Budget for that year will be adopted sometime this fall by the California Highway Commission.

The resolution was suggested by Robert Gulchard. Copies are being sent to the District IV office of the State Division of Highways in San Francisco and the California Highway Commission in Sacramento.

In another action, the directors instructed Secretary Charles Baake to send a letter to Elliot J. Hartman of Lafayette, chairman of the Diablo Highway Improvement Federation, expressing the board's appreciation for his "great efforts in helping obtain allocation of funds for construction of the Lafayette Bypass."

Ron Ortland, 21, Is Electrocuted

Twelve thousand volts from a high tension line were grounded by contact with a crane, Thursday, said Ronald J. Ortland, 21, of 535 Miner Road, Orinda, was electrocuted.

Ortland, a student at San Jose State College, was working with a Berkeley drilling firm in construction of a new service station in the Bel Air Shopping Center, Napa, when the mishap occurred. He was helping adjust the crane's drill when he looked up, and called out, "You touched the line." Then he collapsed.

The crane operator, Albert Scudder, 36, of 2441 Bancroft Way, San Pablo, was unhurt. Ortland was given artificial respiration by William Hansen, of Martinez, until a doctor arrived. The doctor administered adrenalin, but to no avail.

The elder Wootten had been a retired school teacher and real estate man. He had been injured in a fall early last week, but was considered to be recovering.

The elder Wootten also was a member of the first four-year class at the Stanford University, the Class of 1895. He at one time was principal of Lodi High School and then Stockton High.

'THANK YOU'

The staff of The Sun today wishes to extend a thank you to everyone — our subscribers, advertisers, and the public at large — for their patience and cooperation during the recent strike which shut down Contra Costa newspapers.

We appreciate your many expressions of concern, your inquiries concerning progress of negotiations with the International Typographical Union and your expressions of good will during the first newspaper strike in the history of Contra Costa.

Commuters Appeal to High Court

On file with the United States Supreme Court is an appeal by the Contra Costa County Commuters Association and the Marin County Federation of Commuter Clubs, joined by the governing bodies of both counties, against a Federal Court decision allowing Greyhound Lines to establish a separate bus company for commuter operations in the Bay Area.

The appeal was filed August 30 by Attorney Spurgeon Avakian, who has been representing the commuter organizations and the county governments in this matter during the lengthy dispute.

SPECIFICALLY the suit is against a United States District Court of Appeals decision of last April 12 upholding an Interstate Commerce Commission order authorizing Greyhound to set up the Golden Gate Transit Lines.

That ICC authorization was granted in July, 1955, after Greyhound had complained that its commuter runs—as distinct from its long-haul service—were unprofitable.

Greyhound had asked the ICC in February, 1954, for permission to form the Golden Gate Transit Lines for Bay Area commuter purposes.

The Contra Costa and Marin commuter organizations backed by the Boards of Supervisors of the two counties, have contended throughout the dispute that establishment of a separate bus company for commuter operations would result in increased fares.

In an injunction suit the two commuter organizations and the two counties sought annulment of the ICC ruling.

However, the District Court of Appeals on April 12 upheld the ICC order. Decision by the commuter organizations and the two counties to appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court followed.

"The Contra Costa County Commuters Association has been fighting against the Greyhound plan for a separate commuter line for the past few years," President Richard F. Tiedeman of the Contra Costa commuter group stressed recently.

CC Taxes Cut By Supervisors

Well, many a thing has happened in Contra Costa over the past two weeks while 13 newspapers were idled by a strike of the International Typographical Union. About the most important item (other than the ending of the strike as far as we're concerned) is a tax cut in the county budget.

The supervisors approved a cut of three cents per hundred dollars of assessed valuation making the new tax rate $2.17. In the Mt. Diablo Unified School District the tax rate was chopped to $4 per hundred which means a 13.2 cents per hundred cut.

Home Department To Meet Thursday

The Lafayette Home Department will meet at 12:30 p.m. next Thursday at the home of Mrs. Jeanette Kenyon, 1033 Thomson Road, Lafayette. Dessert and a project are on the agenda.

Strike is Over; Dispute Between Unions Continues

The first newspaper strike in the history of Contra Costa County ended Tuesday night as members of the International Typographical Union, Martinez Local 597, voted 42-4 to return to work.

Despite settlement of the strike and resumption of publication, pickets from the Contra Costa Printing Pressmen and Assistants Union Local 432, Wednesday appeared before the Pittsburg Post-Dispatch, Antioch Ledger and The Sun plant to protest awarding of the press jurisdiction to a rival union, the ITU. Under the new contract, the printers' union (ITU) had won the right to represent for stereotype and pressroom employees.

ITU served notice to the pressmen and to publishers that they would cross the pressman's picket line to assure continuance of publication.

Today (September 13) attorney Julian Bauer secured a restraining order against picketing by the pressmen. It is effective until September 23 when a hearing will be held to determine whether it should continue until trial.

ITU pickets continued to pace in front of the Walnut Kernel and the Contra Costa Times. The two papers have signed contracts with the pressmen. Signing with the ITU were the Martinez Gazette, Concord Transcript, The Sun, Pittsburg Post-Dispatch and the Antioch Ledger.

The 14-day strike was precipitated August 27 when the union negotiators handed the publisher's committee a new contract containing a clause which would give the ITU jurisdiction over press and stereotype work. The printers gave the publishers a seven-hour notice. This action was taken at midnight, with a strike to be called at 7 a.m. August 28.

Publishers and printers had been holding periodic meetings since last February. The contract expired February 28.

Publishers presented a new offer in the final meeting before the strike.

Printers recessed to consider the offer and at midnight rejected the proposal. They submitted a new five-page contract, embodying all original demands plus a new clause for press and stereotype jurisdiction. Coupled with the contract was the seven-hour strike notice.

The publishers' committee scheduled a meeting for 3 a.m. with the printers. Unable to contact all newspapers concerned the publishers committee asked a postponement of the strike deadline for several hours.

The request was denied and printers began picketing all plants at 7 a.m.

There was no violence during the strike and friendly relations were maintained between management, the pickets and others involved.

Terms of the settlement include an increase of $4 per week for the first year, retroactive to March 1, an increase of $3 per week for the second year and jurisdiction over proofreaders effective next July.

Also, the work week will be reduced from 37½ hours to 36½ hours effective July 1. Printers will receive three weeks' vacation after two years of service and will have three days' sick leave, effective each year the second year of the contract.

Increased reproduction of matted advertisements in certain categories was granted.

Several firsts were recorded during the strike: The first in Contra Costa history and the longest newspaper strike in the history of the state.

The new wage scale for printers is now $115.38. Proofreading had been under the jurisdiction of the editorial, advertising and business offices.

Fire District Change Opposed By Improvers

Controversy over proposed dissolution of the present Lafayette Fire District and the suggestion that the district and other central county fire districts be consolidated sharpened this week.

Latest development in the dispute was the opposition of the Lafayette Improvement Association board.

At their first meeting of the 1957-58 year, at Lafayette Town Hall, the association directors Wednesday night unanimously adopted a resolution declaring that the association board "opposes calling an election to reorganize the Lafayette Fire District at the present time" and urging delay of any action "until further studies of reorganization and consolidation can be made."

Director George Walker abstained from voting on the resolution, since as an attorney he has aided the Lafayette fire commissioners in opposition to the reorganization and consolidation moves.

THE ASSOCIATION board meeting was conducted by the organization's new president, William Zion.

Directors' action followed last week's continuance by the County Board of Supervisors to 10 a.m. October 1 of a public hearing on a petition asking dissolution of the present independent Lafayette Fire District.

The petition was circulated by the Lafayette Fire Fighters Association, which points out that the objective is to have the present district replaced by a county fire protection district for Lafayette and to effect a consolidation of several districts later.

LAFAYETTE Improvement Association directors' action Wednesday night followed a two-hour conference, earlier that evening at Town Hall, with Chairman Cy Turner and Secretary George Parkhill of the Lafayette Fire Board and with President Don Wright of the Lafayette Fire Fighters Association and E. K. Irwin, chairman of the consolidation study committee of the association.

Wright and Irwin cited the example of Los Angeles County, where local fire departments were recently consolidated. They claimed that the merger there has proved highly efficient.

In answer to a query by Director Robert Gulchard as to how the firemen would benefit from consolidation, Wright said the firemen could be under a civil service setup in a consolidated district.

IRWIN STATED that under a consolidated district, tax rates would go down considerably. Wright asked the improver board to ask the Board of Supervisors to call an election in the Lafayette Fire District on the dissolution proposal.

Parkhill declared he did not believe there would be any financial saving under reorganization or consolidation, since, he claimed, about 75 per cent of the district tax income now goes to salaries.

Turner expressed concern that under reorganization or consolidation, local control over the fire district would be lost.

Wright and Irwin told of what they termed overlapping areas of some contiguous fire districts now.

THIS WAS COUNTERED by Turner and Parkhill, who stated that overlapping does not constitute a problem and that the various local fire districts cooperate whenever necessary.

After Turner, Parkhill, Wright and Irwin left the meeting, the improver association directors discussed the matter at considerable length before adopting the resolution.

The resolution was proposed by Secretary Charles Baake. Baake said later that he is transmitting the resolution to the Board of Supervisors and is sending with it a covering letter explaining that the directors understand clearly that dissolution, reorganization and consolidation are separate steps.

SUPERVISOR Mel Nielsen of the Second Supervisorial District has proposed consolidation of the Lafayette, Orinda, Central, Mt. Diablo, and Mt. View fire districts and the Rheem-Moraga portion of the East Contra Costa Fire Protection District.

Until he became supervisor last January, Nielsen was a Lafayette fire commissioner for five years.

Protest of the Orinda Fire Board against the proposed consolidation was recently added to objections by the Lafayette and Mountain View Fire Boards.

The Orinda commissioners' protest was in the form of a resolution.

District Attorney Cites Restaurants In Investigation

Reports of "syndicated gambling" throughout Contra Costa County were made this week to the Contra Costa Sheriff's office.

An informant notified the sheriff's department that there were at least four Tunnel Strip Restaurants operating dice games and a number of other taverns and businesses operating dice games in both the incorporated cities and unincorporated areas of the other sections of the county. This was last week-end and is reportedly a "week-end business."

Additional reports indicate that there are houses of prostitution in operation in the eastern portion of the county. One "house" has been closed down by sheriff's deputies in the North Richmond area and the responsibilities are facing trial, according to the sheriff's office.

"There seems to be a definite scheme behind this entire operation," said John Jagard, undersheriff. Sheriff Harry Brown is ill with re-occurrence of Malaria.

"It looks as though some outfit has gone all over the county and told bar owners that the heat is off gambling and to go ahead and open up the tables," Jagard said.

"The sheriff (Harry A. Brown) has never condoned gambling and never will. There has been no gambling 'til now. We're going to take every illegal device and make this county so clean that the only place people will say there is to go is to church on Sunday," he said.

"The district attorney has already cited some tavern keepers to appear in his office Monday. We're going to go into the incorporated areas as well as the unincorporated areas and really clean things up," he continued.

The sheriff's office first learned of the gambling operation through the phone call of an unknown person.

Jagard stated that the call arrived at 1:30 a.m. Sunday and it was too late to dispatch any patrols to investigate since the bars closed at 2 a.m.

Jagard noted that the flair up in gambling, which has been at a stand still since Brown took office, may be a move to discredit the sheriff with elections coming up next year.

"There are a lot of people who don't like the sheriff since they can't make a living honestly. If they want to bring in gambling, let them do it somewhere else. This county is no longer a cow county. It's a highly-populated one and laws must be enforced to protect every citizen. We can no more condone gambling than dope peddling.

"The department will enter into an all-out drive to clean this mess up as quickly as possible," Jagard said.

"It seems to me some group of individuals learned the sheriff has been sick and that I had gone on a month's vacation. They must also know that the department is short from a manpower standpoint. The gambling seems to just have sprung up out of nowhere and we're going to put an end to it right now," concluded Jagard.

Heart Victim

Philip Bartlett, 40, former Walnut Creek assistant city engineer, died last Saturday while engaging in water skiing in the Three Mile Slough, southeast of Rio Vista.

He was waiting in shallow water to be picked up by a speed boat which had been pulling him on the water skis, when he was stricken with a heart attack.

'Hottest' is Hot and Cold

"Got to be this or that" is the recent saying, but Orinda's weatherman likes to have it both ways.

The high temperature reading was a scorching 105 degrees last Saturday afternoon, but on Tuesday, the warmest reading was barely 67—a 38 degree spread only three days apart! Here are the readings:

September 6.....	100	55
September 7.....	105	54
September 8.....	100	59

Impartial Group Formed To Study 'City' Status

A new committee, which its members say is "neither for nor against incorporation" has been organized under the title, Citizens Research Committee on Orinda Incorporation.

It has formed sub-committees, and has begun an "impartial analysis" according to a member, Lindsey Spright.

The creation of a "City of Orinda" has been discussed for many months, and sentiment on both sides of the question has been expressed.

COMMITTEE members include residents who have varied opinions.

Spright commented, "Right now, we're a middle-of-the-road group going our own checking into authoritative sources."

He added that when the studies are completed, probably sometime next month, a public hearing will be called.

At that time, recommendations of the committee will be presented. If there is division of opinion, both sides will be included.

ONE OF THE sub-committees will have the job of determining the cost of obtaining independent consultation and recommendations on a community master plan. This will be the Planning and Zoning Esthetics, and Recreation Committee.

Another committee will contact other communities to learn what advantages lie in a borough system of government, as regards fire and police protection. Whatever the form, the planning will remain in local hands.

Circulators of Orinda incorporation petitions will probably soon request the Board of Supervisors to set an early date for public hearing and election.

A new state law lowering the cost of legal publication of petitions will aid this process. The election must be held by February 1 to have the new City of Orinda on next year's assessment rolls.

COMMITTEES include the following:

General budget—Bruce Howard, chairman; Gene Shurtliff and Peter Radcliff.

Public works—Robeson Smith, chairman; Maynard Buehler and John Stoffel.

Public safety, fire and police—James Moriarty, chairman; Herbert Wegner, Paul Pollacek and Russell Gilwee.

Planning and zoning esthetics—Ralph Hall, chairman; J. K. Doherty and James Felchlin.

Advisors include Howard Gardner, associate director of the League of California Municipalities, and attorneys Ernest Spiegel and George Hauken.

A third study group, composed of "large taxpayers" is reported to have been formed. No actions

Local Schools' Enrollment Up

Enrollment at the five schools of the Orinda Union School District totaled 2625 students this week, a record for the district, Superintendent Joseph L. Sheaff's office reported.

On the opening day of school September 4, district enrollment totaled 2599. Sheaff told the District Board of Trustees at its meeting September 5 at the Pine Grove. This was a district record for opening day, and compared with an enrollment of 2334 on the first day of school last year.

On opening day this year the enrollment at the various schools was: Del Ray, 610; Glorietta, 415; Orinda, 475; Sleepy Hollow, 534; Pine Grove, 565.

PINE GROVE School has seventh and eighth grade classes and a few sixth grade classes. Glorietta School has kindergarten through fourth grade classes. The other three schools have kindergarten through sixth grade classes.

The trustees, at their September 5 session, scheduled a special meeting for next Monday night at the Pine Grove School. At 7 o'clock the trustees will make a final inspection of the six-classroom addition to the Pine Grove School. At 8 o'clock they will open bids on fencing for the Pine Grove School playground.

OTHER BOARD actions at the September 5 meeting included:

1. Approval of the hiring of five new teachers.

2. Authorization of burglary and vandalism insurance coverage for protection of various school properties.

3. Authorization of sale of remaining bonds available to apply toward Glorietta School additions and toward purchase of the Wagner Ranch and Inland Valley future school sites.

Mr. Lynd, a research editor for a map company in San Jose, died in his sleep.

He had graduated from the University of California in 1947, and obtained his masters degree in history. He was a member of Alpha Delta Sigma and Phi Alpha Theta fraternities.

Survivors include his parents, his wife, Celis, two sons, and a brother, John, a Stanford University architect.

Report on Land Due Sept. 23 For Association

Scheduled for the September 23 meeting of the Orinda Association Board of Directors is a report on the complicated problems of whether the association should try to buy new land for Community Center purposes and whether to sell its present Community Center land to the Orinda Community Church.

At last Monday night's board meeting, held at the Oak Springs Club House, the directors instructed the land committee, under the chairmanship of Bob Walpole and with the help of the planning committee, to determine what land is available, the price of such land and whether it is in the Central Contra Costa Sanitary District.

This determination is to be made before the September 23 meeting, the board specified. President Gene Estes conducted Monday night's meeting.

Sale by PIE Alters Problem Of Association

With a 10½-acre parcel at the Pine Grove corner just northeast of Orinda Interchange having been sold by Pacific Intermountain Express Company to the Marmonte Corporation, the Orinda Association's problem of what to do with its Orinda Community Center land assumes a new aspect.

PIE, which bought the Pine Grove parcel from the East Bay Municipal Utility District nearly three years ago for $106,000, announced last week a transaction which included sale of the parcel to the Marmonte Corporation.

Also included in this transaction was the signing by PIE of a 15-year lease for the long-vacant Taft and Penroyer Building at 1417 Clay Street, Oakland. PIE announced that it will move its general offices there by January 1. The firm's general offices are now on Adeline Street, Oakland.

The 15-year lease was made between PIE and the Marmonte Corporation.

ACCORDING TO A. S. Glikbarg, president of PIE, the new headquarters will be renamed the PIE Building. To be completely remodeled and modernized, the building will house 300 employees and executives.

When PIE purchased the Pine Grove parcel almost three years ago, it announced plans for erection of a $750,000 office headquarters there. With that in mind, it applied for rezoning of the land to administrative office district category.

Despite vigorous objection by the Orinda Association, the county rezoned the land.

Early this summer PIE offered the parcel for sale to the association. Negotiations on this intended impasse when, early in July, PIE specified a July 15 deadline and upped the price to $142,000.

THE ASSOCIATION had been interested in acquiring the Pine Grove site for use as a Community Center. Toward this end, it was negotiating with the Orinda Community Church regarding possible sale to the church of some of the present Community Center land, between Orinda School and the church, with the view of using the money received from such a sale as a down payment on the Pine Grove land.

President Gene Estes of the Orinda Association commented last Monday night, at a regular meeting of the organization's board, that the sale of the Pine Grove parcel to Marmonte apparently makes association efforts to acquire the parcel a "dead issue."

However, directors stated that the court suit opposing and appealing the rezoning of the Pine Grove land will continue as planned.

A SPOKESMAN for Marmonte said there are no definite plans for use of the Pine Grove site.

Glikbarg declared that the three-story Taft and Penroyer Building will provide adequately for future expansion, and he pointed out that the building can be increased in height four more stories, to a total of seven stories.

When the Orinda Association-PIE negotiations reached a standstill last July, the talks between the association and the Orinda Community Church were also stymied.

Suburbia Scribblings

By MARIE MONAHAN

Frustrating Finish... The V.P.s, former Orindians who now live in Concord, were sailing smoothly home from the Berkeley Camp in the Sierras. Rolling merrily along, that is, until they sailed NOT-so-smoothly into their brand new garage, completely forgetting that the top of their wagon was loaded down.

LAMENTABLE LOSS & DAMAGE incl. One Garage door, one car roof, one wrecked (borrowed) car-rack and innumerable suitcases smashed to smithereens.

Like something out of a SATEVEPOST cartoon... the incident that occurred to Prentiss Cambs of El Toyonal (who authors stories for the same S.E.P., by the way) when vacationing at the Berk Tuol. Camp he rolled up the reel for his son Chris. At that precise moment there appeared out of the Nowhere, a very much alive Game Warden who asked Prentiss to produce his fishing license. Which he couldn't, of course.

LET THAT BE A LESSON to all of us who've taken to the tasking of casting for our young-fry fishermen. Game wardens pop up like Jack In The Box and fines run from $25 to $500.

Closing camp at Berk Tuol. were the Ted Schillings w/Susan and Ted and Lela and Prentiss Cambs and their children, son Chris going on into Yosemite Valley to join the wknl. scout expedition headed by Bud Loughman and Tom Mann.

Perry's Champ At Trout Farm

A new kind of championship has been chalked up—or, rather, hooked up—by 13-year-old Perry Daniel Popovich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Popovich of 118 Hillcrest Drive, Orinda.

Perry recently caught the largest fish caught in the past few years at the Trout Pond in Tilden Park. B. Gillich, manager of Trout Pond, vouches for the size of Perry's catch—a rainbow trout almost 19 inches long and weighing 3 pounds.

The Trout Farm has trout planted in it. Patrons pay according to the size of their catches.

Perry's father was formerly organist and choir director at the Orinda Community Church for five or six years. He now is organist at the Second Church of Christ, Scientist, in Oakland.

Orinda Woman's Club Ready for Another Year

The Orinda Woman's Club will begin its 1957-58 club year September 23, 8 p.m., at the Glorietta School all-purpose room.

Mrs. E. A. Patterson, president, asks that all old members attend, since several important decisions must be made concerning by-law revisions and a philanthropic fund possibility.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Walter Ammon, chairman, assisted by Mesdames Donald Anderson, John Bannister, John Barkley and Herbert Beasley.

Officers serving with Mrs. Patterson for the new club year include Mrs. Ernest Haynes, vice-president; Mrs. Clifford Campbell, secretary; John Barkley, treasurer, and Mrs. Merle Tobias, auditor.

Letters to The Editor

Dear Sir:

Your excellent editorial in the August 16 Sun points up the key question the careful, objective incorporation for Orinda: Should important governmental decisions affecting Orinda and its future be made by the people of the community?

If the people of Orinda give this question the careful, objective study it deserves, they will very likely find that incorporation offers the most effective and economical means of achieving local control over local affairs. They will probably conclude, too, that Orinda certainly is able to accept the responsibilities that accompany self-government.

Your continuing to present all the facts to the voters of Orinda through the columns of The Sun will be of great service to the community.

DICK BARTLE

Troop 207

Boy Scout Troop 207 of Orinda enjoyed its second annual summer Sierra pack trip. Leaving Orinda August 24, the scouts drove to Toulumne Meadows.

That Sunday they hiked over Toulumne Pass to Boothe Lake, and spent two days at this beautiful small lake.

The entire party climbed Vogel-sang Peak, 11,511 feet, that Monday, and the view of Yosemite Valley was outstanding.

The next two days were spent hiking into the Valley via Little Yosemite, arriving at Happy Isles. Thirty miles had been hiked.

Pied Piper shoes have toe room with "grow" room. There's needed room for growth at tip of toe, top of toe, and at sides as well.

BPW to Honor Mrs. Worswick

The Lafayette Business and Professional Women's Club will honor its "Woman of the Year," Mrs. Elizabeth Worswick, at a dinner meeting at Danny Van Allen's at 7 p.m. Wednesday.

Mrs. Worswick, chairman of the Merchants Division of the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce, is well known for her leadership and interest in community affairs. She is the owner of the Fiesta Fashions and Shoo-Time Shopping stores.

Chairman of the BPW Club's "Woman of the Year" project is Mrs. Dorothy Pickering. Club president is Mrs. Helen Haines.

Petition Will Help Location Of Moraga P.O.

Circulation of petitions throughout the Moraga-Rheem postal area to determine where the majority of citizens of the area wish to have a single post office located (instead of two, as at present) was agreed upon recently by the Moraga Valley Community Club and the Rheem Center Merchants Association.

At joint sessions of representatives of both organizations, agreement was reached that:

1. There is no need for two post offices—Moraga and Rheem.

2. There should be one post office, to be called Moraga.

3. The consolidated post office should be where it will best serve the majority of people in the area.

4. A petition drive would be conducted under joint auspices, by unbiased citizens, to determine the preference of the majority as to location.

5. Results of the petition would be forwarded to postal authorities and Congressman John Baldwin.

Glorietta Will Dance Sept. 21

The Glorietta Improvement Association will hold its annual dinner-dance at the Ted Herrer home Saturday, September 21.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Porter will be in charge of all arrangements for the evening. Activities will include a cocktail hour served dinner, buffet style dinner followed by a caterer, then swimming and dancing.

Approximately 200 members are expected to attend.

Summer Is School Time For Gold Court Kids

Twenty-five children from Silverado Manor and Los Palos Estates attended school all summer. Totty Spragens, 14, of Gold Court organized her summer school in July and held classes on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 10-12 a.m. on the family patio.

Totty entered Acalanes High School this month and plans to prepare for a teaching career. Among the studies of Gold Court School were Indian lore and wild animals, along with nature hikes, arts and crafts, sharing and explaining favorite possessions and keeping individual charts of merit stars.

Assisting Totty through the summer were Nancy Blodgett and Barbara Hunter.

Recently a program of entertainment was presented to the mothers, the acts having been written and choreographed by Totty.

Opening the revue, singing "Howdy Do, Dear Mothers," were tiny tots Terry Ann Van Geem, Marcia Blodgett, Susie Jacobson, Ted Strickler and Johnny Murphy.

BALLET DANCERS, appearing in colorful crepe-paper costumes created by their teacher, were Susie and Kathy Saylor, Mary Ann Meltzer and Sheryl Bracken.

An Indian dance was spiritedly given by Dickie Keifer, Stevie Spragens, Jerry Jacobson and Donny Bracken.

Cowgirl majorettes Joan Maloney, Sally Khicker, Debbie Simmonds and Sandra Wig, looking their best in western attire, strutted proudly for their mothers.

THROUGH THE AUDIENCE Marcia Maloney circulated as a clown, and Joan Whitehead as a clown.

Vacation for Estes'

The W. E. Estes family of 33 Van Ripper Lane, Orinda, recently enjoyed a vacation which included a week at the family lodge at Lake Tahoe, a visit to Disneyland and a brief stay at Santa Barbara.

companied the acts at the piano in addition to the children's program. Johnny Harrington gave his well-known "Knock on Wood" pantomime and Totty danced a lively can-can tap. Following the show everyone enjoyed lemonade and cookies.

Unable to attend because of vacation trips were Bobby and Craig Josta, Mike and Steve Oliver and Jari and Kathy Dyer.

New Tot-School Being Opened

Mrs. Norma Mulks will soon open the Tot's Wonderland nursery school at her home, 45 Don Gabriel Way, Orinda. She has been accepting registrations. Her phone number is DR 6-4462.

The school is county-licensed. Mrs. Mulks points out. It will include nursery school and also, for youngsters from 3 years old to kindergarten age, pre-school classes. Sessions will be from 9:30 a.m. to noon.

Dog Gets Lost; But He Knows Where to Go

It was service with a smile recently when Don Fibush, of 3350 Springhill Road, Lafayette, called the Walnut Creek City Hall to report that his dog, Bruno, was missing.

The plump cocker-spaniel had leaped out of his car while he was driving downtown. Fibush told police.

A few moments later, City Manager Ira Gunn noted a cocker-spaniel wandering wistfully about the front porch of the City Hall, and he took the stranger in tow.

Fibush was called, and asked to drop around and pick up his dog. He did.

"They really take care of a fellow fast around here," Fibush commented.

5-Mile San Pablo Dam Rd. Freeway Opens to Traffic

The San Pablo Dam Road, a county freeway, was opened to traffic yesterday at 11:45 a.m. The scenic, 5.03-mile long freeway overlooks the old San Pablo Dam Road and East Bay Municipal Utility District's Lake San Pablo for its entire length from Bear Creek Road, near Orinda to the San Pablo Dam, near El Sobrante.

It is the sixth contract to be completed in the program which provides for the entire reconstruction of San Pablo Dam Rd. from its southerly end at the Orinda Traffic Interchange at State Highway 24 to its northerly end at U. S. Highway 40 in San Pablo. The contract construction cost for this new segment of approximately $1,650,000 for this segment is by far the largest single highway contract in the history of Contra Costa County, as well as being the largest unit of work in the San Pablo Dam Road reconstruction program, which will eventually total more than $5 million.

Currently under construction is Contract 7 for a 1.2-mile section of freeway that bypasses Orinda Village, on the western side from the Orinda Traffic Interchange north to Ardiella Road.

This contract is also being performed by Fredrickson and Watson Company - Ransome Company, (a joint venture).

Work is proceeding on schedule, with completion expected in mid-summer of 1958.

Presently the new 5-mile freeway is two lanes wide. Much of the earthwork and drainage work was performed to accommodate future widening to four lanes, when the traffic increases sufficiently to require additional highway capacity.

Right of way for ultimate four lanes is being acquired.

Camporee at Mt. Diablo Is Planned

Meridian District Boy Scouts will hold a Round-Up Camporee at Camp Force on Mt. Diablo, September 28-29, it was announced today by John S. Youmans, district executive of Mt. Diablo Council.

"Members of 29 Troops in Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, and Danville-Alamo areas are eligible to participate. We have every reason to expect that at least two-thirds of them will be there," he said.

An unusual feature of the Camporee is the "Round-Up" theme, which will be observed by each Patrol of Boy Scouts inviting two boys who are not yet in a Troop to be their guests for the week-end event.

They may be members of a Webelos Den in a Cub Pack, boys who have graduated from Cubbing, or boys who are 11 years old and not yet in Scouts.

Food and shelter will be provided the guests by the Patrol. Each guest's Dad is also invited to assist in the operation and judging of the Camporee, but he will provide his own food, shelter, and sleeping gear.

Special competitive events are planned for these boys, based upon the Tenderfoot requirements, and a "branding ceremony" for the "mavericks" will take place at the Saturday evening campfire program.

Glenn T. Gleason, Walnut Creek, as chairman of the District Camping and Activities Committee, has named Bruce Herbert of Pleasant Hill as Director. Members of the committee include Dr. Harry Misch, Alamo, of the Health and Safety Committee; Raymond Van Tassel, Danville, Chairman of Advancement; and Lester Lloyd Lafayette, District Commissioner.

Information is being mailed Scoutmasters and Cubmasters, and reservations are due before September 15, according to Gleason. Details of the daily program and judging standards were on the August Roundtable agenda. Commissioners are prepared to assist Scoutmasters in answering questions about procedures, fees, and other matters.

Short-Doyle Implementation Is Considered

The County Mental Health Association, a member of the United Crusade, is sponsoring a study for further implementing the Short-Doyle Act.

The announcement was made by Frederick Kracke, president of the association at a recent meeting of mental health leaders held at the Hotel Claremont, Oakland.

Local officials and Mental Health Association members include State Senator George Miller Jr. of Martinez, Mesdames W. O. Davis and Catherine Long of Concord, Mr. Frederick Kracke and Mrs. Hans Wendel of Lafayette, Mrs. T. B. Holmer of Orinda and E. Walton Kirk of Walnut Creek.

VALLEY ART CENTER'S Ninth Annual Art Show was held last Saturday and Sunday at the Jellett Building, 3406 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette, and a preview party for members and guests was held last Friday night. Making decorations for the show were, left to right, Mrs. Parker Stack, William Wilkinson, Mrs. Wilkinson and Mr. Stack. ## Freda Brown Is Grand Marshal Of Procession

Mrs. Freda Brown will be the grand marshal in this year's Walnut Festival Parade, September 22.

Freda and her husband "Skipper" moved to the Walnut Creek area in 1923 when they opened a hardware store in Lafayette and since then Freda has been active in local business and community projects.

Ten years later, they bought the only haberdashery store in Walnut Creek from Ed Bacon and ran this business until 1946. The Browns live in Pacheco.

The Brown home is loaded with trophies, ribbons and silver plaques won by Freda and her horse, "Goldie."

Freda started show riding in 1951 and has won more than 100 awards in the Silver Mounted class. Her first appearance in a Walnut Festival Parade was in 1936 when she won the grand prize—a set of dishes.

She recalls that also participating in the parade that year were Johnnie Walker, Mildred Laird and Mary Ridgway. Freda has ridden in every Walnut Festival Parade since that time.

Among her most recent first prizes are the Novato Horsemen's Parade, Alameda County Fair Parade, Palm Springs Horshesh Parade, Phoenix Horsemen's Parade and the International Lion's Club Parade. She has also won first place in the Berkeley Football Festival for the last five years.

"I feel very close to Walnut Creek," Freda says, "and consider myself as one of the real 'Old Timers,'" said Freda.

District Buys Tice Valley H.S. Site for $175,000

Acalanes High School District trustees are completing arrangements for the $175,000 purchase of a new school site of 51 acres on Dollar Ranch Tice Valley property.

Purchase of the site follows a stipulated judgment from a condemnation suit filed by the district.

The property will be bought with a state loan authorized earlier by California voters to allow school districts to borrow funds for school sites.

AN INITIAL repayment of $39,000 will be made by the Acalanes District this year, according to the formula prescribed by law.

Prior to their meeting last Tuesday night, trustees toured and inspected school facilities now being completed — the multi-use room and cafeteria and the art and science wing at Miramonte High School in Orinda and the 2000-seat gym-auditorium at Las Lomas High School in Walnut Creek.

Trustees approved completion plans for finishing landscaping at Miramonte and preliminary plans for 10 additional classrooms and a shop at Miramonte, to be completed by fall of 1958.

Girl Molesters

Two more motorcycle club members accused of molesting a teen-age Walnut Creek girl were awaiting sentence following their pleas of guilty in superior court this week.

Squadron Takes Safety Trophy

Recently Marine Fighter Squadron VMF 141, based at the Naval Air Station in Oakland, was awarded The Pete Ross Safety Trophy. The squadron is commanded by Lt. Col. James A. Leckie, USMC of Castro Valley.

The squadron has been competing with 21 other jet fighter squadrons in the Marine Air Reserve Training Command throughout the country. VMF 141 won the trophy once before in 1953.

Brigadier General Frank C. Croft, USMC and his aides flew into make the formal presentation. General Croft is commander of the Marine Air Reserve Training Command and is now stationed at the Marine Corps Air Station at El Toro, California. The trophy is awarded each year to the Marine Air Reserve Fighter Squadron having the best safety record and is a tribute to "Pete" Ross, a Marine veteran who was killed in an accident while attending a flight drill with VMF 121 at Glenview, Illinois.

Central Contra Costans active in VMF 141 include Capt. Edwin Flinn, 128 Moraga Highway, Orinda; Capt. Thomas N. Crellin, 1641 Springbrook Road, Walnut Creek; Capt. D. Forrest Bates, 1273 Rosemary Street, Concord, and T. Sgt. William A. McGraw, 2755 Eastgate Avenue, Concord.

FAN BELT IMPORTANT

The fan belt on an automobile is an important item, yet it is often neglected. Unless the modern V-shaped fan belt used on most cars is adjusted properly, it may fail prematurely. On some cars the fan belt is required to drive the fan, water pump, generator and even the power steering pump and air compressor. The fan belt should be checked for correct adjustment at frequent intervals by a competent mechanic.

Recorder Trial Delayed Again

The non-criminal trial of Contra Costa County Recorder Ralph Cunningham has been postponed until October 1, according to the district attorney's office.

Cunningham has been accused by the grand jury of malfeasance in office on two counts. Reason for the postponement as given by Francis Collins, district attorney, was that the deputy attorney who was preparing the case for the county died.

Clifford Anglim was to have prepared the case, but the case has been turned over to Deputy District Attorney David Levy. The case was to have been heard next Tuesday. Cunningham is accused of setting up a "salary kickback" involving two staff members and of being absent without leave from his office and of failing to administer his work properly.

The accusation voted by the 1956-57 Grand Jury is not a criminal indictment. Removal from office would be the maximum penalty if Cunningham is found guilty. He entered a not guilty plea last May in Superior Court.

Women Voters Begin Annual Finance Drive

The League of Women Voters will begin their annual finance drive on Monday. It will continue for one week. Funds for the estimated 1957-58 Budget of $840,000 are needed.

The League does not conduct a general public appeal for funds, but solicits contributions from a selected list of interested people. It approaches them as citizens who are concerned with increasing citizen participation in gov't. A large portion of the budget is met by member donations as gifts.

Working on the Concord Finance Drive are Mrs. P. H. Wilson of Concord, chairman, and co-chairman Mesdames Sue McConnell of Walnut Creek, Dean Yeaman of Concord, Gilbert Mead of Pleasant Hill, and Eugenia Pratt of Orinda.

Matadors Get Ready For JV Play

The Miramonte Matadors took to the grid field in their opening practice session recently some 65 strong, with 20 lettermen on the roster.

Headman Don Phillips and his new assistant, Bobby Brooks, are faced with a rebuilding task, as transfers and a decision on the part of several not to play this season have hurt in key spots.

The Matadors play in the Junior Varsity League this season, as they won't have seniors until 1958-59.

A MAJOR LOSS is Gary Lucas, last season's top scorer and ground gainer, who ended his football with a ski accident last spring. A hard runner, he leaves a big spot to be filled.

Adding to Coach Phillips' woes are the facts that end Steve Cornwell transferred to San Jose and that Steve Unnevehr, voted last year's outstanding frosh lineman, transferred to Cubberly High of Palo Alto.

Chances are the Matadors will see more of Unnevehr, as they face Cubberly at Palo Alto in their one and only practice game on September 27.

RON BROWN, a regular half-back and outstanding linebacker, and Bill Houston, another letterman, have decided not to play football this season.

Coach Phillips has hopes of catching a transfer or two in return for his losses, but nothing has shown to date.

The story isn't as dark as it might appear, however, as there is a crop of good players on hand despite the losses, and, with the whole club concentrating on J.V. ball, chances are things will pick up once the actual playing season gets under way.

Acalanes Dons' Grid Squad Has Heavy Practice

The Acalanes Dons' 1957 football squad reported recently for their initial workout, with approximately 85 candidates on hand.

It's a new year for the Dons in more ways than one, as they have an entirely new working staff, with Jack Carhart, varsity bossman, having moved up from J.V. mentor, and Buzz Williams coming in via College of the Pacific as line coach. Buzz is a graduate of Acalanes and was an outstanding lineman in his prep days.

Three-day drills were held by Carhart, with morning, afternoon and evening sessions, until school started, when it became a one-day routine.

TEN LETTERMEN return to the fold, headed by last season's all-county fullback, Stuart Busby.

Others returning are: guard Art Batchelder, a center of last season, who figures to become a guard.

Phil Condit, another pivot man, taking over the middle spot.

Returning linemen — guard Larry Felix, tackle Mike Holland and end Steve Jordan.

In the backfield — halfback Rick Davis, fullback George Means, who goes to the quarterback spot; Lou Marelo, a quarter-back last year, who has a go at left half, and Dave Bojarsky, coming back at right half.

DRILLS HAVE been intensified from day to day, with the squad being closely observed in order to divide the players into varsity and junior varsity material.

Carhart, coming up from the J.V. club of last year figures to move a number of his former players to varsity spots.

Next Friday will find the Dons opening with a practice game against the Alhambra Bulldogs of Martinez.

Nothing exceeds the pride of a man for his new boat. The skipper stands at the pier, admiring every smooth, curving inch of the hull, the gleaming fittings, the neat lines.

Naturally, he's anxious to pile on more ways than one, as they have an entirely new working staff, with Jack Carhart, varsity bossman, having moved up from J.V. mentor, and Buzz Williams coming in via College of the Pacific as line coach. ing or bollard on the pier with a clove hitch, and aboard the boat the lines should be fastened to cleats with cleating hitches.

Don't forget to carry certain spare parts and tools. Mechanics are hard to find offshore and out of sight of land. Spark plugs, coils, condensers, distributor points, extra lines, flashlights (in working order), and, for outboards, extra shear pins are necessary items.

Also include screw drivers, pliers, wrenches, hammers, and other simple tools.

A SMALL HAND bilge pump will make bailing easier if you spring a leak or ship water from a wave. Flares are helpful in emergencies, and a small basic first aid kit, with a good manual, can literally be a life-saver.

If you carry a small stove aboard, make certain it is a bolt-down type. Do not use a gasoline stove or a portable unit on a boat.

Check your food locker before leaving to make sure you have everything needed for a happy day afloat.

Specific information on equipment required by law can be obtained from government publications or by attending a Power Squadron class.

For instance, depending on the size of the vessel, the law requires that all boats operated on federal waters have aboard in working condition: certain lights, fire extinguishing equipment, life preservers and flame arrestors on inboard gasoline engines.

Believe it or not, anchors are not required by law, and even more unbelievable, some skippers actually take small boats out without them.

BUT EVERY BOAT needs an anchor, and two are better than one. The size and type of anchor will depend on how large the boat is and what type of bottom you will drop the anchor in.

It's wise to have one anchor handy, already shackled to a line, the other end of which is made fast to a cleat or bitt. You can imagine the results of running an anchor line out to the "bitter" end.

You can't avoid tying knots when you have a boat, so you might as well learn the proper way of doing it.

THE SIMPLEST way to make a small boat fast to a pier is with two lines, one extending from the bow and the other from the stern. Each should be attached to a pil-

Dr. Bradford was formerly principal of the Pleasant Hill Intermediate School, and before that was in the Phoenix elementary school system for 24 years.

Rams Ready For Cowboys

With 16 returning veterans the Pleasant Hill Rams are working hard in preparation for the opening grid clash with the Livermore Cowboys next Friday.

Ram gridders under the tutelage of Hal Briggs have been working out in daily practice sessions.

Three new members are listed on the Pleasant Hill High coaching staff this season. George Gali, former Pittsburg prep, Contra Costa JC and University of California All-Coast guard, is serving as Briggs' assistant. Don Lockyer of Idaho State is the Jayvee assistant and Lee Marrow of Nebraska State is the freshmen mentor.

Wes Laubsher, former Stanford full, remains as varsity backfield coach. Lyle Palmer, another Cal man, continues as head of the Jayvees. Virg Sullivan of Pepperdine, will be working with the newcomers to the sport.

Pleasant Hill will be using the straight T but with special variations.

In the backfield it looks like the starting line-up against the Cowboys, whom the Rams beat 32-6 last year, will be Dud Buffa in the quarter slot, Lou Salazar at left half, Dan Ipson on the right and Roger Leonard at full.

The Las Lomas Knights, under Head Coach George DeKlotz, opened practice recently with 87 on hand.

If the Knights are to improve on their record of the past two seasons, they will have to end up in the number one spot, as they were runner-up in 1955 and 1956.

DeKlotz has a new assistant in Duane Lewis, who was at Pleasant Hill last year. Lewis, with a background of playing quarter-back at Santa Clara and a bit of duty with the 49ers, replaces George Davis, who moved to a junior college down South.

THE KNIGHTS held two-day sessions, with the morning workouts starting at 10 o'clock and the afternoon workouts starting at 4 o'clock, until school started, when it became just once a day along with the rest of the prep.

Biggest job on hand appears to be the development of a capable replacement for quarterback Jim Symington, who was lost via graduation.

Seven varsity lettermen return along with a host of a good crop of J.V. players.

TOP BACKFIELD timber is available in Pete Ostrom, a half-back of proven ability who led the league in touchdowns and yardage gained last year, and Duane Brown, a hard-running full-back.

Others returning are End Britt Williams and Tackles Rick Kraemer, Bob Blower and Joe Lagoa. Roger Cowell, a fullback, is a returnee but a dubious one, due to knee trouble.

DeKlotz, usually on the pessimistic side, is smiling a bit more than usual.

THREE REASONS may be a pair of big ones up from junior varsity in Tackle Dave Weil, who stands 6-foot-4 and tips the scale at 235, and Center Hermie Rowland, 6-foot-3 and 240, along with a rumored all-league transfer from Los Gatos who is said to be over the 6-foot mark and on the hefty side.

Practice games find the Knights opening on San Ramon's new field next Friday and then hosting Piedmont on September 27.

The Piedmont and San Ramon games will be of double interest as both clubs will be league opponents next season, when the new prep circuit comes into being.

LADS BEAT DADS—That was the story at Acalanes field recently when youthful baseball players defeated a team of dads, 4-3. Jack Carman was the catcher behind the plate as Jack Larsen, one of the dads, came to bat. The youngsters showed the dads (who were team managers in the Lafayette Youth Association this summer) that they—the youngsters—had learned their lessons well.—Sun photo by Mattson

Ladies Day Winners Told

Winners of the Ladies Day competition at the Contra Costa Golf Club were recently announced.

They are as follows:
Flight A—first, Mrs. Curtis Duncan; 40-7½-32½; second, Mrs. William West.

Flight B—first, Mrs. William Fry, 41-9½-31½; second, Mrs. Don Edminster.

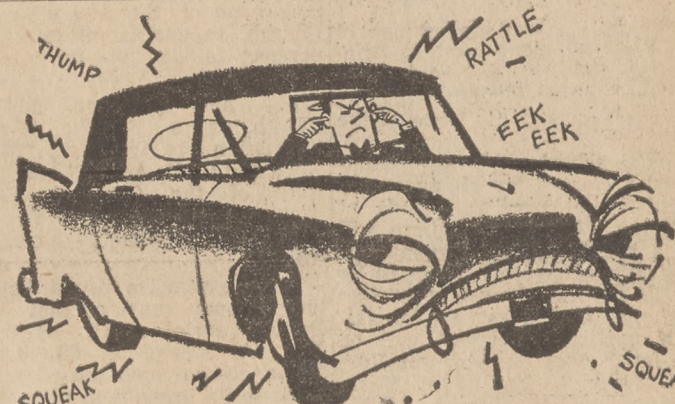

Flight B—first, Mrs. D. Lubking, 43-11-32; second, Mrs. Frank Colburn; third, Mrs. Allan Gunnsmith.

Lads Beat Dads By 4-3 Score

The Lafayette Babe Ruth team would up the 1957 season on a sweet note when it dropped the dads recently, 4-3.

The dads, who have served as junior baseball managers this summer, took a 1-0 first inning lead, but time told the story, as they tired in the final inning and, puffing, went down to defeat.

The game, played at the Acalanes High diamond, found a good crowd on hand, with the kids getting most of the cheers — and the dads receiving lot of sympathy as they pulled muscles and "ran out of gas."

Moraga Kids Go To Kindergarten

Eighteen children from the Moraga area are attending kindergarten classes in Lafayette and Orinda, following action by the Lafayette and Orinda School Boards.

Since the Moraga School does not have kindergarten facilities, the Moraga School Board asked the Orinda and Lafayette trustees to accept the youngsters.

These two boards agreed. Each district has accepted nine Moraga children. The Orinda board acted September 5. The Lafayette board acted Monday night.

In Lafayette, four of the Moraga youngsters are attending kindergarten at Montecito School, while five others are at Lafayette School. In Orinda, nine Moraga children are in afternoon kindergarten at the Sleepy Hollow School.

The agreements with the Moraga School District specify that the arrangement is for one year, that the Moraga District will give reimbursement for any expense involved in excess of the Average Daily Attendance allowance by the state, and that parents furnish all transportation to and from school.

The Orinda board stated that the arrangement would be followed only if there is no adverse school housing effect on Orinda kindergarten children.

Now Standard refines a rare "rock" to give U.S. a new source of gasoline

High pressure water jet shatters solid Gilsonite. Flume hose washes particles down mine floor to pipeline.

Petroleum products are now being made without crude oil. Standard found the answer in a rare hydrocarbon called Gilsonite. But it took $16,000,000 and a vast research program to do it. Deep in the mountains of Utah our scientists worked out a better, faster way to mine Gilsonite. Meanwhile our engineers designed the nation's first pipeline capable of carrying solids suspended in water... over a rugged terrain to a spot 72 miles away.

There Standard* built the nation's first privately financed refinery to make petroleum products from a material other than crude oil. Today that refinery turns Gilsonite into high octane gasoline for motorists, and the purest coke known for making steel, aluminum and other metals. In our country's search for new sources of fuel, the development of Gilsonite is a major breakthrough. It means the equivalent of 100,000,000 barrels of oil added to U.S. underground reserves—important help in meeting our country's growing petroleum needs.

500 Attend Annual Show Of Valley Art Center

Approximately 500 persons attended the Valley Art Center's Ninth Annual Art Show last weekend at the Jellett Building in Lafayette. Mr. and Mrs. A. Parker Stack of Orinda, co-chairman of the colorful event which brought the Bay Area's finest painting, sculpture, mosaics, ceramics and weaving to the Diablo Valley, announced yesterday.

The Board of Directors of the Valley Art Center selected "Reflections" by Hildegard Hass of Berkeley as prize-winner among the more than 50 painters represented in the big show.

A misty, casein abstraction, "Reflections", purchased by the center, will be available for rental to the public through the center's headquarters in The Frame House at 3688 Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Lafayette.

Arrangements have been made whereby other paintings exhibited at the show may be rented for a nominal fee for three-month periods, according to Mrs. John Ellis, rental gallery chairman.

In addition to the galaxy of artists already announced, who brought their works from the majority of Bay Area communities as well as the Carmel and Big Sur colonies, Kay Lane of Berkeley, whose tourmaline fish with an opal eye mosaic was a standout, also exhibited in the show, Mrs. Stack said.

Robert S. Cornwall, landscape artist, signed the ninth annual show. Mr. and Mrs. William T. Wilkin-center's headquarters in The son of Orinda were coordinators.

School Time Is Here; Watch Out for Kids!

School has started again and that means that again there are thousands of youngsters on the roads and streets . . . and school buses, too!

It is, therefore, time to stop and think about a few things, most of which we have heard before. But it is time to think, because sometimes people have been known not to remember a good rule, and they have been sorry, afterward.

We all know that we should be careful when driving through our beautiful residential neighborhoods, where children just naturally play in the streets.

With school in session, this is even more important, because what is more natural for a child who has been cooped up in a classroom all day, than to tear out to play . . . and sometimes without much regard for prosaic things like automobiles?

So we KNOW we have to be careful where the children are concerned.

But there is another aspect to the matter. It is a common sight to see school buses winding around our roads every day of the school year, and they are pretty big buses at that.

If you are not paying attention, and are day dreaming, it can be pretty embarrassing to meet a school bus, alight corner . . . and the school bus, although it is on its own side of the road, cannot duck very well.

So be prepared . . . expect to meet a bus at every turn, and you will not be surprised if you do.

And we all take a driver's test in order to get our license, but how many of us remember to obey the law and stop when the red lights are flashing on the back and front of a school bus that is loading or discharging passengers?

That law was created for a reason, and it behooves us to obey it. You can imagine how you would feel if you hit a youngster who darted out from behind a bus.

But there is one other area of responsibility. It is the duty of parents to instruct their children in the rules of safety, and to expect the children to do their part.

Children must be told that the bus stop is not the place for horseplay, and that they must be careful. Many of us still remember the child who was crushed by a school bus when he ran under the wheels of the parked bus to retrieve something.

The trouble was, the bus didn't stay parked, and a child lost his life because he didn't think . . . or didn't remember what he had been told.

Therefore, we must be careful and prepared as parents, adults and drivers. It is not much to ask, nor hard to do. As a newspaper, we do not enjoy printing stories of the death and injury of children—especially when it is a needless accident.

clean of accidents. Let's all do our individual part to keep it that way.

A Road Unlike Any Other

By JULIUS ROSENTHAL

It's all rather confusing, as Alice in Wonderland might say, but of one thing I'm certain — there isn't another road like Oak Hill Road.

I don't mean the portion of it near downtown; that section is pretty much like other streets near the "main stem" of a town. Stores and traffic are nearby, and that's that.

But when you start meandering along Oak Hill Road as it winds on its way, it's uniqueness becomes apparent.

(The word "meandering" in the previous sentence is used advisedly, because it is really only when walking that you can appreciate the rare qualities of this road and its surroundings.)

Only a few months ago or so, I was startled by a sudden loud rustling early one morning, along one side of Oak Hill Road.

I looked up — and there were three deer, big as life, striding to the road. At the road's edge they paused for a moment; then, scarcely glancing at me, they scampered across the road and on up the hill on the other side, until they vanished from sight.

What happened to them I don't know. I assume they reached their destination safely, since I didn't notice any news articles that day or the next about deer hit by cars in the vicinity.

Birds warble and chatter as you walk along Oak Hill Road at daytime; and dogs bark, each with its own distinctive nature manifested by the tone and rhythm of its bark. The flowers, shrubs and trees are remarkably lovely.

It is on a clear night, however, that the most awesome beauty shows itself.

That is the beauty of the night sky.

By looking up from Oak Hill Road, as you walk, you can see the countless stars. If you are an amateur (or professional) astronomer you can distinguish some of the constellations.

The sight of this vast sweep of stars reminds me of how I marveled in my youth whenever I saw the night sky in rural or semi-rural areas of the Midwest.

A creature of the city, I was used to the bright glitter of artificial illumination in the city streets — and the occasional glimpse of the night sky, with stars so bright that you could almost imagine being able to reach out and touch them, never failed to inspire me.

Those glimpses would occur on my infrequent visits to the country.

Now, along Oak Hill Road, such views are common — but somehow I can't take them for granted.

Another wonder of the night sky is the full moon. When the full moon is on display, the ground, the trees and the road itself are almost as clearly visible as in broad daylight.

What's that? You say that there are homes and people along Oak Hill Road, just as along all other roads? Yes, you're right. I should have mentioned them, too, of course.

There is no intention in this brief essay to slight humankind and its endeavors and accomplishments.

But deer, birds, dogs, the shrubs and flowers and trees, and the night sky with its stars and moon — these help explain why people like Oak Hill Road.

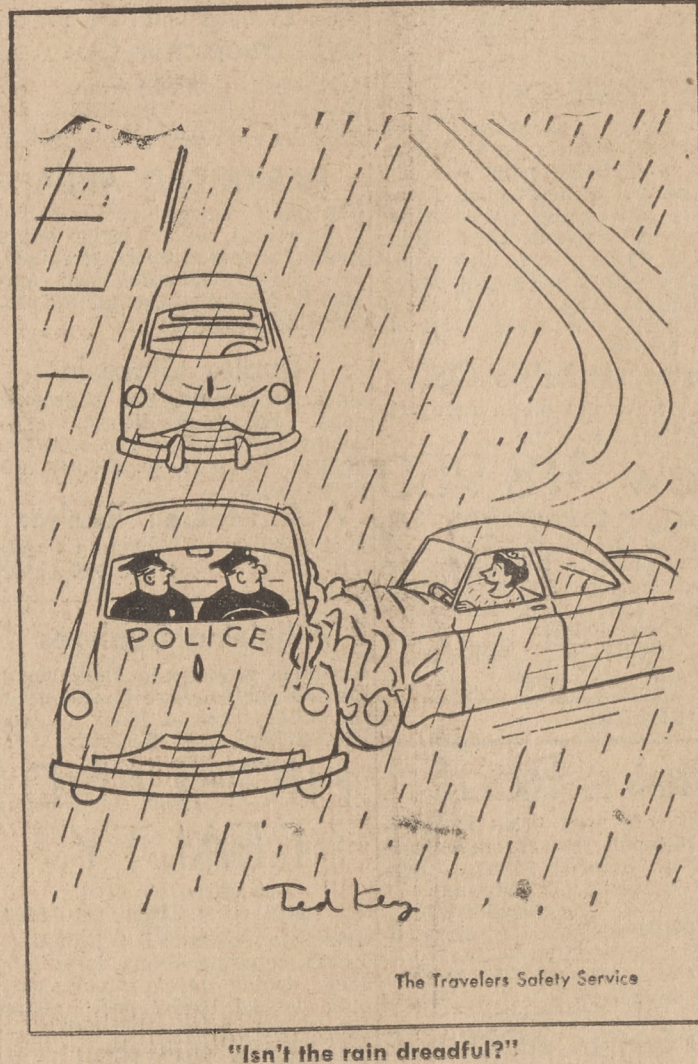

As I said, there isn't another road like it.

Fatal Fallacies by Ted Key

Utility Dist. Tax Rate to Remain 20%

The tax rate of the East Bay Municipal Utility District will remain the same during the 1957-1958 fiscal year, EBMUD President Louis J. Breuner announced recently.

Breuner said the district board of directors had reaffirmed the existing tax rate at their August 23 meeting.

The Utility District tax rate for water service is 20 cents per $100 assessed valuation. The tax is levied on property throughout the Utility District service area, which includes 13 cities and large unincorporated areas in both Alameda and Contra Costa Counties.

Breuner said the during the 28 years that the Utility District has been serving water to the East Bay area, the water tax rate has been reduced 15 times, maintained at the same rate 10 times, and raised only three times.

In less than six years of operation, Breuner noted, the sewage disposal system tax rate has been lowered twice for a tax decrease of more than 27 percent.

Accompanying reductions in water service rates and sewage disposal service charges also have been made by the Utility District over the years, Breuner added.

Mt. Diablo Park To Add Acreage

An additional 1000 acres south of Clayton will be added to the present Mt. Diablo State Park, according to a statement last week by the State Division of Parks and Beaches.

The present state park recreation area is 2168 acres.

In a letter to the county supervisors, Division Director Newton B. Durry said that the state agency had experienced difficulties in attempting to purchase a 3500 acre tract state park at Bethel Island.

But he said that "we can show some progress" towards the Bethel Island purchase in the near future.

Durry said that the park commission has voted $200,000 towards the improvement of the Mt. Diablo Park on Mt. Zion with most of the funds slated for roadside improvement within the park site.

Letters to The Editor

ABOUT FLUORIDES

DEAR EDITOR:

I am again writing in protest to the letters published in your paper originating from Mrs. John Jeffrey. In the August 23 issue her letter contains the following paragraph:

"Now, as to fluoride being a waste-product, we need only look at 'Chemical Week' for July 7, 1951, an article 'Water Boom for Fluoride' which states: 'Chemical makers are goggle-eyed . . . standing to benefit from the boom are chemical companies and equipment firms . . .'

I could not believe that such questions were in proper context and so I visited the McGraw-Hill offices in San Francisco, borrowed their file copy of the July 7, 1951, issue, and enclosed you will find a photostatic copy of the entire article.

CHEMICAL WEEK is a reliable publication of many years' standing. Normally a reader of your paper would assume that a citation would be in sound context.

Mrs. Jeffrey has indicated by this example that she has no desire to accurately represent the point that she argues — and her promiscuous use of misleading citations can only lead to dissemination of completely inaccurate statements . . . you might quote to your readers the following three paragraphs from the Chemical Week article originally cited by Mrs. Jeffrey and which indicate a view completely contrary to her representations:

"ALL OVER the country slide rules are getting warm as waterworks engineers figure the cost of adding fluoride to their municipal supplies. They're riding a trend urged upon them by the U. S. Public Health Service, the American Dental Association, the State Dental Health Directors, various state and local health bodies, and vocal women's clubs from coast to coast. In fact, sponsors of the new technique — which is claimed to halve the incidence of tooth decay — read like a 'Who's Who' of health authorities."

"Drop in the Bucket: Even if all the water in the country were fluoridated, it wouldn't add up to a bonanza for fluoride makers. It has been estimated that 45,000 tons a year of sodium fluoride or 35,000 tons of sodium silicofluoride would do the job, but current output of the silicofluoride is about 40,000 annual tons."

"It would mean even less to equipment makers, for if ten-year amortization of equipment is assumed, it costs less than the chemicals."

In closing I would like to request a statement of policy from your newspaper on whether or not the columns will continue to be open to persons proven to be following the practice of quoting out of context for the purpose of misleading or confusing your readers.

Under The Sun

Let's Talk About Strikes, Cigarettes and Boroughs

By Herman Silverman

When I was young, I edited a Boy Scout paper. Later I edited a high school weekly, then a college daily, next an army paper and thereafter professional papers.

Never did I dream (?) I would ever be involved in a strike. I could fill many columns. But to sum it up: what an experience!

The doctor speaks . . .

Dr. Henrik L. Blum is our county health officer—and a good one at that. He also has a sharp sense of humor and doesn't believe in mincing words.

I recently heard him speak about numerous health topics. He didn't hesitate a moment to say that smoking and lung cancer are closely linked.

"And lung cancer is one of the most popular ways of passing away," he declared, adding that heavy use of cigarettes is dynamite—light use is less dynamite."

He related that recently he sat around a conference table with a group of lung specialists—there were very few cigarettes smoked!

An interesting example . . .

Dr. Blum was pleased that the Board of Supervisors had finally passed a law to finance inspection of restaurants and other food handling establishments.

He then cited a recent "interesting" example: a cook had been found with "an advanced case of tuberculosis" working in a local restaurant.

The health officer emphasized the importance of taking polio shots.

"This is the best year we've had in the county. We haven't had a case where paralysis was diagnosed—if the person had had the polio vaccine. But, remember," he added, "it is too late to get your shots if an epidemic starts."

Speaking of air pollution, Dr. Blum stated, "We are going to need your help. Remember, most government is by and large responsive to the people."

What is a borough?

Another man with a mission is Joe McFarland, who is sparking a committee to study the establishment of a borough system among the communities of Central Contra Costa County. Under such a system, each community would have its own city government but all would be linked together into a borough form of government, which could furnish over-all services, such as police, road, tax assessing, etc. Ted Barcelon and some of the Jaycees plugged this several years ago.

Joe came in but I missed him. Here, however, is a memo from a reporter who talked to Joe:

"Here is a brief summary of Joe McFarland's info: 'McFarland would appreciate any editorial comment you may have concerning future of possible borough system in central county. — He relates this to your recent column on the difficulties of overlapping districts. 'Joe points out that such a system would be feasible even if Orinda, Pleasant Hill, Lafayette, Alamo or other cities incorporate. — In fact, he suggests, that an incorporation drive at the same time as a borough government campaign would be beneficial to both. 'As you know, he believes that borough system would eliminate many of the overlapping features of present city government without harming character or sovereignty of cities. — He is particularly concerned, I think, that some people may regard publicly for Orinda or other incorporation as opposed to borough system. 'Hopes you will make some column comment soon if you're of a mind to—next meeting of the Borough Study committee is Wednesday at the Pleasant Hill Recreation Center."

Am happy to make a comment. I would certainly like to see a study completed on the possibility of a borough system. The savings could be tremendous. Establishing such a system, however, will not be easy. But most worthwhile things do not come easy, do they?
